4 MARKING ENTRY COUPONS

- 4.1 A Player can select either or both of the following types of entries in Super 7's Oz Lotto:

- (a) a Standard Entry; and/or
 - (b) a System Entry
- and may thereafter opt to play their selection:-
- (c) in Advance; and/or
 - (d) for Multi-Weeks; and/or
 - (e) with a Top Up with each Game costing the Subscription plus commission advertised by Tattersall's at the time and point of purchase. There are no minimum Game requirements for Super 7's Oz Lotto entries.

- 4.2 A Standard Entry is constituted by a Player selecting seven numbers only in one game panel from the numbers 1 to 45.
- 4.3 A System Entry is constituted by a Player selecting other than seven numbers in one game panel from the numbers 1 to 45 and by marking the System selection box in that game panel. Subject to Rule 4.8, more than one type of System selection (ie, System 7 or System 10 etc) can be played on any one Entry Coupon. A Player can mark:
- (a) from 8 to 18 numbers in a game panel for a respective System 8 to System 18 Entry. Tattersall's computer system will calculate all possible seven number combinations from the Player's selected numbers) which will then constitute that number of Games for that System Entry (ie, a System 9 will produce 36 seven number combinations); or
 - (b) 5 or 6 numbers in one game panel for a respective System 5 or System 6 Entry. Tattersall's computer system will combine the Player's number selections with the remaining unselected numbers to calculate all possible seven number combinations which will then constitute that number of Games for that System Entry (ie, a System 6 will produce 39 seven number combinations).
- 4.4 Subject to Rule 4.6, an Advance entry allows the Player to nominate any one future Draw up to twenty five (25) weeks beyond the next Draw into which an entry can be effected. The Player must mark the Advance selection box on the Entry Coupon and advise the terminal operator of the date of the Draw into which the Advance entry is to be entered. If the requested date is not a scheduled Draw date, the entry will be processed for the Draw next occurring after that requested date.
- 4.5 A Multi-Weeks entry may be purchased for up to 26 consecutive weeks and is constituted by the Player marking the corresponding number of weeks from those available in the Multi-Weeks selection box on the Entry Coupon. The Player's selected numbers will then be entered into that number of consecutive Draws beginning with the next (current) Draw into which an entry can be effected.
- 4.6 A combined Advance Multi-Weeks entry will be accepted if the Player has marked both Advance and Multi-Weeks selection boxes but only if the last Draw contained on that entry does not exceed twenty-five (25) Draws beyond the current Draw.
- 4.7 A Player may request a Top Up entry by marking the Top Up selection box on the Entry Coupon. The computer system will then generate Standard Entry Quick Picks for each of the remaining unmarked game panels on the Entry Coupon.
- 4.8 All entries are subject to the restrictions imposed on Tattersall's computer system to process entries which exceed a specified number of Games in any one Draw on the one Entry Coupon and/or Entry Ticket and, in the case of System Entries, those which exceed the allowable number of separate or combined System Entries on the one Entry Coupon and/or Entry Ticket.
- 4.9 Players shall mark their numbers by hand in black or dark blue pen in each chosen game panel. Except with the prior approval of Tattersall's, a Player shall not mark an Entry Coupon by means other than by hand. An Entry Coupon which is marked other than by hand will not be considered a properly completed Entry Coupon for the purposes of these Rules and a Player claiming a prize as a result of an Entry Coupon marked other than by hand and having been accepted by an Accredited Representative without Tattersall's prior approval may not be entitled to payment of any prize in relation to that Entry Ticket.
- 4.10 A properly completed Entry Coupon shall be processed through Tattersall's computer system via terminals situated at the outlets of Accredited Representatives.
- 4.11 An Entry Coupon not properly or fully completed may be manually edited on the terminal by the Accredited Representative at the direction of the Player in which case the detail referred to in Rule 6.1(d) will appear on the Entry Ticket.

- 6.4 If requested by an Accredited Representative on its own or a Player's behalf, Tattersall's may, in its absolute discretion and subject to its computer system capability, effect a cancellation of an Entry Ticket at Tattersall's computer system's host site and the Player shall be refunded the Subscription and commission paid, if any, in respect of such Entry Ticket.

At the time of payment of a prize, the Player will be given a receipt showing the amount of the prize.
- 9.5 Unless a Player has completed an anonymity request by marking the Entry Ticket at the time of making a claim for a prize, Tattersall's shall be at liberty to publicise any Player's name as a prize winner. - 9.10 The delivery of any prize winning Entry Ticket is the responsibility and at the expense of the Player. Proof of posting or bank lodgement will not be accepted as proof of ownership or delivery of an Entry Ticket.
- 9.11 The Player shall accept all risks, losses, delays, errors or omissions which may occur through Australia Post or the banking system and Tattersall's shall be under no obligation to send any remittances by registered, recorded or security post. The cost of remittance of prize money may be deducted from the prize payable to the Player.
- 9.12 Subject to Rule 9.6 Tattersall's will recognise only the person/s by whom the Entry Ticket is surrendered as the absolute owner (and where more than one person, then in equal shares) and except as ordered by a Court of competent jurisdiction shall not be bound to take notice or to see to the execution of any trust whether express, implied or constructive to which any such Entry Ticket may be subject.

- 9.14 Payment by Tattersall's to the person/s surrendering the Entry Ticket of any prize money payable in respect thereof shall be a good discharge to Tattersall's, notwithstanding any notice Tattersall's may have of the right, title, interest or claim of any other person/s to such prize money.
- 9.15 A terminal produced replacement Multi-Weeks Entry Ticket supplied on prize payment will be recognised for the next prize validation. The Multi-Weeks Entry Ticket used for validation and payment of a prize ceases to be valid, and only the replacement will be accepted for further prize collection.

Except for prizes paid to Players under Rule 14, if a prize is payable to a Player residing in a Participating Jurisdiction where the currency is other than the Australian Dollar, the prize will be paid in that jurisdiction's currency at the average AUD Retail Market Exchange Rate applicable on the Monday of the week in which the Draw to which the prize on the Entry Ticket relates is conducted. For the purposes of this Rule, "week" means the period of 7 days from Monday to Sunday inclusive and the "average AUD Retail Market Exchange Rate" means the average of the 'buy' and 'sell' AUD Retail Market Exchange Rates advertised in The Australian Financial Review newspaper.
- 9.17 Any liability of Tattersall's to a Player arising from any statement about a Draw made by (or any negligence on the part of) an employee, servant, agent or contractor of Tattersall's or any other person, shall be limited to the cost of the Player's Entry Ticket in that Draw.
